9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

Client Ann Belles owns and runs 2 homes that are located right behind one another but not adjoined. She has guardianship or adopted 63 children. Currently there are 30 residing in the two homes she owns. In property # 1 she has children that require special diet or receive GI tract feeding. Currently these children do not receive CF benefits. In property #2 Ms. Belles resides and the children in this home do not have special diets they receive adoption assistance, SSI/SSP, no income and one with earned income. She has hired staff to help her with the children. She is responsible for purchasing and preparing of the food. Is this considered one CF household?
She has two web sites as a non-profit organization requesting donations for the family. AllOurBoys.com the web site belongs to Ann Belles and accepts donation (Pay Pal) for her family. Another website links from this website called First Step Supported Living Services was created by Ann Belles also accepts donation. What is acceptable verification? Can it be considered earmarked? Please see page 2 for more information.
