9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

Medi-Cal customers do not pay a share of cost unless they actually use Medi-Cal services.

1. Is the Medi-Cal share of cost considered an allowable expense even if the customer does not access their Medi-Cal?
2. If they must access Medi-Cal to incur the expense, is the expense the total share of cost or just the amount actually spent.
EX: If the customers share of cost is $1000 and their doctors visit was $200, is the allowable expense the $200.00 the customer is now responsible to pay?
3. Does the expense/share of cost need to actually be paid before being an allowed medical expense?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

Yes, the customer must access Medi-Cal to incur the cost. Per 63-300(e)(7) verification is required prior to the expense being allowed. Only the amount the customer is actually responsible to pay is an allowed expense.

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

1. Per regulations cited at MPP 63-502.33, medical expenses above $35 (MPP 63-1101) is an allowable expense, however share of cost is not an allowable expense if the customer does not access their Medi-Cal.
2. The allowable expense is only the amount that the customer was required to pay.
3. Per regulations cited at MPP 63-300.5(e)(7), verification of medical expenses is required prior to being allowed.
