9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

If a student is employed for at least 20 hours per week but instead of receiving wages they receive an in-kind income benefit (for example the employer pays the student's rent and utilities), would this person qualify as an eligible student based on MPP section 63-406.211?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

MPP section 406.211 states a student must be employed for a minimum of twenty hours per week and be paid for such employment, it does not exclude in-kind income as a source of payment so the student should be eligible based on this criteria.

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

The State does not agree with proposed answer. Employment that receives in-kind income does not satisfy the student exemption requirement. The intent of Congress is to limit the exemption to students that are gainfully employed and making realistic attempts to support themselves. Receiving in-kind income instead of wages does not meet the Congressional intent.
