9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):
- Under CF Reg 63-801.512, the collection of IHE and Admin claims can be suspended or terminated when the following conditions apply:
- (a) The household cannot be located; or
- (b) The cost of further collection action is likely to exceed the amount that can be recovered.

Would this regulation apply to a case scenario where the single person household is deceased? Could the collection of any claim be terminated if the person is deceased? If in the event, there was a CalFresh balance at the time the person expired, could the balance be applied to offset an over-issuance?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:
- CF Reg 63-801.512 - Suspending and terminating collection of claims applies when a person cannot be located. We could interpret this to include a situation when the person is deceased. Therefore the county may suspend/terminate the collection of a claim when a person has expired. Regarding the situation when there is a CF balance in the same month a person expires, the county may not collect an outstanding claims as the CF recipient is no longer liable due to his/her demise. Is this a correct?

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

CDSS concurs with the proposed response.
